We will assume that the information is correct should you not provide any feedback in this regard within 14 (fourteen) days after we have sent the documents to you using the contact details provided by you. Correction of errors may not always be possible to backdate to inception of the Insurance Policy.

4.1.2. In the event that you are a juristic person, you warrant that the director or officer or partner or employee who represents you in your dealings with us, is duly authorized to do so.

4.2. Duty of Disclosure:

4.2.1. You are obliged to disclose, before an Insurance Policy is concluded, each and every "material" circumstance or information which may in any way affect the assessment of the risk and the decision of the Insurer to insure the risk, as well as determining the appropriate premium. The obligation of disclosure is not limited to material circumstances or information of which you are aware but also extends to those circumstances of which you ought to be aware of in the ordinary course of your business. This obligation continues throughout the duration of any Insurance Policy.

4.2.2. If there is any breach of duty to act with utmost good faith or failure to disclose any material circumstance or information to Insurers, Insurers may be entitled to void the Insurance Policy from inception or repudiate claims.

4.2.3. The duties of utmost good faith and full disclosure are also applicable to the renewal, extension, amendment of any Insurance Policy or replacement of cover with a new Insurer as well as to the making of claims or wherever you are required, under the terms of the Insurance Policy to provide information to Insurers.

4.2.4. You must take care to ensure that all the information provided to us is timeous, accurate and complete. 4.4. Risk Information:

- 4.4.1. You will be required to immediately advise us of any material change which may in any way affect the assessment of the risk and the decision of the Insurer to insure the risk and to determine the premium at which such risk to be insured. You are required to provide updated risk information to us including but not limited to claims information which will be used for the purposes of obtaining renewal or updated terms from Insurers.

Failure on your part may lead to Insurers rejecting any claim in respect of the increased risk. Where the subject matter of the insurance is so altered as to make it a different risk (as opposed to increasing the risk), Insurers may consider themselves not to be on risk.

- 10.11. In return for us providing the Services, we will be entitled to be paid a fee and/or commission. Fees are earned in full at the time of the placement of the relevant Insurance Policy and we will be entitled to all fees in respect of the full Insurance Policy period (even where you terminate the Insurance Policy and/or our appointment and/or these terms). Where circumstances require, we will advise you how to proceed with the quantification and submission of your claim. - 11.4. In certain instances where you have an Insurance Policy in terms of which you are responsible for certain losses within agreed self-insured limits as set out in the Insurance Policy or any similar self-insurance arrangement without an Insurance Policy and you appoint to Aon fulfil the administration, settlement and reporting functions in respect of such losses, Aon will do so under a Claims Management Agreement. The services provided under such agreement will be governed by these standard terms and conditions of business.

23.2. You undertake to furnish us with whatever information and/or documentation that we may require to comply with our obligations.

24. International Trade Restrictions

24.1. Aon maintains a strict global policy regarding compliance with International Trade Restrictions (the "TR Policy") including, in the United States, those administered by the Office of Foreign Asset Control ("OFAC").

24.2. In summary, the TR Policy takes into consideration applicable laws, including those that relate to export controls and designated parties (including parties regarded by OFAC as Specially Designated Nationals), and affects, in particular (but not solely), certain transactions related to countries subject to sanction, prohibition or restriction under UN Security Council Resolutions or under other applicable trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations (collectively known as "Restricted Territories"). The Restricted Territories under the TR Policy may be subject to change in line with international trade restrictions.

24.3. We expect you to carry out appropriate due diligence to ensure your activities are in accordance with all applicable trade restrictions laws and regulations. We do not assume responsibility for your non-compliance with such requirements. If you become aware that the risk you have insured or are proposing to insure through us involves a Restricted Territory or any other relevant trade restrictions, you should tell us immediately. Where we become aware that an entire transaction is contrary to the TR Policy, then we may not act. If part of a transaction we have been asked to carry out (or have already carried out) would constitute, or constitutes, a breach of the TR Policy, we may not act with respect to that part, whether it involves a placement, renewal, variation of insurance contract, payment, processing, advising, the handling of a claim or any other service. We will be able to continue to service any other aspects of the account that do not contravene the TR Policy.

25. Anti-Bribery and Corruption

Each party undertakes:

- 25.1. to ensure that no acts of bribery or corruption in breach of any anti-bribery and corruption laws applicable to either party, in relation to the Services, shall take place.
- 25.2. not to do, or omit to do, any act that will cause or lead the other party to breach any anti-bribery and corruption laws applicable to it; and
- 25.3. to keep proper and accurate books and records reflecting any and all payments made, and expenses incurred in connection with the performance of the Services.

26. Third Parties

- 26.1. Any Advice, report or information that we provide is given solely for your benefit and cannot be given to or relied upon by any third party (including your related companies, employees and agents, unless expressly agreed to by us) without our prior written consent. We exclude all liability in respect of any advice, report or information provided to any unauthorised third party.
- 26.2. If you are obliged to procure insurance to meet a contractual obligation, you must take your own independent legal advice on whether the insurance that we recommend satisfies that contractual obligation. We cannot give such legal advice and you irrevocably warrant that you will not seek or rely upon any legal advice from us on such matters for any purpose at any time.

27. General

- 27.1. If any term of the standard terms and conditions of business is found to be illegal, invalid or unreasonable under any applicable law, regulations or material pronouncements, or invalid or unenforceable under codes of conduct, statements of practice, directions or guidelines issued by any regulator or relevant professional body, then such term shall, insofar as it is severable from the remaining terms, be deemed to be omitted from the standard terms and conditions of business and shall in no way affect the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining terms, which will remain in full effect.
- 27.2. We are not liable for any failure or delay to perform any of our obligations where such failure or delay is due to causes outside of our reasonable control.
- 27.3. No failure by a party to enforce any provision of the standard terms and conditions of business and the Confirmation will constitute a waiver of such provision or affect in any way a party's right to require the performance of such provision at any time in the future.
- 27.4. Any provision of the standard terms and conditions of business which contemplates performance or observance subsequent to any termination or expiration of the standard terms and conditions of business shall survive any termination or expiration of the standard terms and conditions of business and continue in full force and effect.
